8. Old Business
 - a. D. Roy stated that he has been asked by residents about a variance granted to Rick Desrochers last year. At the time, the application stated that a trailer on the residence was unlivable, but they have now been living in it for several months. He explained that there was no time period condition on the variance, but that in the future, the Board may benefit from stipulating time frames. He also stated that Alvan Hill will look into the situation and report to the Board next month.
 - b. R. Faucher, Sr. asked about a portion of the ZEO report regarding a bond owed by Norman Rudzinski. A. Hill explained that a $7,500 bond (per phase) has not been paid, and that he has sent a letter to Mr. Rudzinski stating that if the $7,500 is not received by August 24th, A. Hill will issue a cease-and-desist.

9. New Business: None

10. Citizens' Comments
